Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor

beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman," writes Mrs. O. Rhinevaux, of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and brilliant health. It quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them. 50c at all druggists.

A man who can't tie a four-in-hand may be a good hand at binding a bargain.

For A Lame Back

When you have pains or lameness in the back bathe the parts with Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day, massaging with the palm of the hand for five minutes at each application. Then dampen a piece of flannel slightly with this liniment and bind it on over the seat of pain, and you may be surprised to see how quickly the lameness disappears. For sale by all dealers.

ABSORBLETS

That Christmas isn't far away, I've had a warning; The janitor remarked to me: "Good-morning!"

"Yuletide is fast coming, dear, If you my wife will be, I'll draw my cash and start right in To be your Christmas tree!"—Judge.

This Christmas she has taught me What I had never divined; Judge by the tie she's bought me, She must be color-blind.—Judge.

Bargains are not found at a bar, Nor do barnacles grow on a barn; Caruncles don't grow on a car, Nor do pharmacists work on a farm.—Chicago News.

"Scorcher is heartbroken." "What's the matter with him?" "He's just read that Halley's comet is traveling 40,000 miles an hour."—Boston Transcript.

The mistletoe blushed for shame, As it hung above the door, When the maiden told her flame She had never been kissed before.—Judge.

Grace—George, dear, George—What? Grace—Which is the man they call Smearem? I notice they keep shouting to him all the time.—Chaparral.

Within this queer old world confined, Strange are the sights we see! Now in each Harlem flat we find The sawed-off Christmas tree.—Judge.

"Pugilism is barred in most of our states now."

"And yet they say the Constitution guarantees the right of free speech."—Kansas City Journal.

With ink on her fingers And smudge on her nose She looks literary Wherever she goes.—Kansas City Journal.

Bobbie—Santa Claus must have a hard time to get all the presents he gives.

Papa—He has a harder time paying for them.—Judge.

There are three ways to reach a man—through his stomach, his heart or his head. The first lasts only until the next meal; the second while you are near him; the third forever.—Judge.

The First Woman. (viewing the Curtiss aeroplane)—My, what a splendid clotheshorse!

The Second Woman—What a magnificent curtain, stretcher!—Boston Transcript.

Being upbraided by her mother for being the lowest in her class, little Mabel exclaimed in tones of injured innocence: "It ain't my fault. The girl who has always been foot left school!"—Delineator.

Slum Worker—What a well-behaved little boy he is!

Burglar's Wife—And he comes by it natural, ma'am. His poor father always got his sentence reduced owing to good behavior.—Exchange.

His Sister—What do you usually give the waiter, George?

George—Oh, if he serves me well, I give him a tip of a shilling, but if he serves me badly I give him a tip on the races!—London Opinion.

"When I got home yesterday I found that my wife had gone home to her mother."

"You did? What did you do?"

"Oh, I just hurried over there and had a good meal, too."—Detroit Free Press.

Pat—Could yer give a man a job, yer honor?

Barber—Well, you can repaint this pole for me.

Pat—Be jabers, I can, sor, if you'll tell me where to buy the striped paint.—Punch.

"You should insist," said the doctor, "on your boy's accustoming him self to cold baths."

"I don't have to insist," answered the worried father. "He'll be out skating before the ice is an eighth of an inch thick."—Washington Star.

"What do you want for Christmas, father?"

"Going to gimme a useful gift, as usual, I s'pose?"

"Surely you do not object to a useful gift?"

"Not at all. Make it a ton of coal."—Washington Herald.

At a Christmas dinner in Washington a statesman who had been much in the public eye was called upon after the meal to make a little speech. He arose and began.

"You have been giving your attention so far to a turkey stuffed with sage. You are now about to give your attention to a sage stuffed with turkey."—Judge.

"Speaking of accommodating hotel managers," continued Mr. Morgan, "the best I ever met was in a small western town. I reached the hotel late in the evening. Just before I went to bed I heard a scampering under the bed, and saw a couple of big rats playing tag. I rushed down to the office to complain. The manager was as serene as a summer breeze.

"I'll make that all right, sir. Here, boy, take a cat to room 23 at once."—Independent.

He was a doctor and was patiently waiting for his first patient.

Thought he: "If the mountain will not come to Mohammed, Mohammed must go to the mountain. And as patients will not seek me out I must needs seek them out."

He strolled through a cheap market and presently saw a man buy six nice cucumbers.

"Here's a chance," said he, and followed him home.

Patiently he waited for four long and lonely hours, and about midnight the front door quickly opened, and the man dashed down the steps.

He seized him by the arm and cried earnestly, "Do you want a doctor?"

"No!" replied the man, roughly, "Want more cucumbers!"—Answers.

A country clergyman relates the following incident as being absolutely founded on fact:

Having arrived (says he) at that point in the baptismal service where the infant's name is conferred, I said: "Name this child."

"Original Story," said the sponsor-nurse.

"What do you say?" I asked in surprise.

"Original Story," she repeated in clear, deliberate tones.

"It's a very odd name, isn't it? Are you sure that you want him called by the name of Original Story?" I queried.

"Original Story—that's right," she declared.

"Is it a family name?" I persisted.

"Named after his uncle, sir," explained the woman in charge, getting red in the face.

And so as Original Story I christened that unoffending little fellow. It was some weeks after this event that I made the acquaintance of the said uncle—a farm laborer in another village—whose name was Reginald Story.—London Telegraph.

Ten Christmas shoppers standing in a line;

One got elbowed out, then there were nine.

Nine Christmas shoppers, shopping very late;

One fell asleep, and then there were eight.

Eight Christmas shoppers shopping till eleven;

One fainted dead away, then there were seven.

Seven Christmas shoppers, cross as two sticks;

One founced home to bed, then there were six.

Six Christmas shoppers only just alive, One remembered baby! Then there were five.

Five Christmas shoppers, pawing bargains o'er;

The salesgirl snubbed one, and then there were four.

Four Christmas shoppers, nervous as could be;

One smelled smoke, and then there were three.

Three Christmas shoppers, making great to-do;

One had hysterics, then there were two.

Two Christmas shoppers, with shopping not half done;

One thought she saw a mouse, then there was one.

One Christmas shopper, who'd spent all her mun;

Her husband came for her—then there was none.—Judge.

Health is More Expensive Than Any Cure

This country is now filled with people who migrate across the continent in all directions seeking that which gold cannot buy. Nine-tenths of them are suffering from throat and lung trouble or chronic catarrh resulting from neglected colds, and spending fortunes vainly trying to regain lost health. Could every sufferer but undo the past and cure that first neglected cold, all this sorrow, pain, anxiety and expense could have been avoided. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. Use it and the more serious diseases may be avoided. For sale by all dealers.

When two girls are said to resemble each other they are both horribly disappointed when they meet.

For That Dull Feeling After Eating

I have used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for some time, and can testify that they have done me more good than any tablets I have ever used. My trouble was a heavy dull feeling after eating.—David Freeman, Kempt, Nova Scotia. These tablets strengthen the stomach and improve the digestion. They also regulate the liver and bowels. They are far superior to pills but cost no more. Get a free sample at all dealers and see what a splendid medicine it is.

Don't tarry for a job as letter carrier unless you are willing to follow directions.

For Eczema, Tetter and Salt Rheum

The intense itching characteristic of these ailments is almost instantly allayed by Chamberlain's Salve. Many severe cases have been cured by it. For sale by all dealers.
